

QA7
Leadership and Service Management

Complete induction folder for staff

Strong communication between staff
 Decision making inclusive of all staff

QA1
Educational program and practice

Strengthen our understanding and use of the literacy and numeracy indicators

Critically assess and refine our reporting procedures .

- Create a culture of listening to children [Lisa Burman “Are you Listening”]

Define creative and critical thinkers and build children’s capacity in these areas. [Results Plus].

QA2
Childrens Health and Safety

All children to engage in physical activity.

Foster in children a sense of respect and encourage them to slow down, and reflect what they have done and enjoyed their kindergarten day.
 Review health care plan termly

QA6
Collaborative Partnerships with families and the community

Increase our profile in the local community

Update web page

Support a sense of community amongst the families

QA3
Physical Environment

Children to be orientated to new outdoor learning spaces and assisted to use these safely.
 Review the design of the outdoor area and plan for any further development /plantings.
 Involve the children in planting growing watering weeding and sweeping. Have tools accessible to encourage independence
 Assist children to be water wise .
 Refurbish food preparation kitchen area.
 Replace occasional care lockers.
 Paint outdoor shed and pergola area to create a light and inviting space

QA5
Relationships with children

Respectful and equitable relationships are developed and maintained with each child
 Develop a strong sense of belonging
 Early identification of children at risk of not belonging

QA4
Staffing Arrangements

Staff will have ongoing opportunities to engage in professional development together.
 Staff will explore and critically reflect on “Are you Listening “ by Lisa Burman, and practice agreed principles from the book

Goal